

FAMILY CONCERT

Saturday, March 13, 2010 – 3 pm
The John Santos Quartet

Five-time Grammy nominee and USA Fontanals Fellow, John Santos and his Stellar Quartet shed light on the historical and cultural significance of Latin Jazz, as well as its aesthetic characteristics pertaining to instrumentation, rhythm, interpretation and improvisation. Their repertoire consists of original compositions and exciting original arrangements of classics from Cuba, Puerto Rico, and the United States.

San Mateo Public Library
55 West Third Avenue
Oak Meeting Room
Free admission and
Free parking in Library's underground garage

